Case Narrative

208 - Kadrmas, Wade R, Created: 04/11/2019 08:32, Last Modified: 04/11/2019 08:32

At 2100 hours I received a call from State Radio about an Amber Alert request came in from SRST BIA law enforcement in Ft. Yates, ND. I responded to the EOC to review the Amber Alert request.

The request was to locate 23-20-57, 7 yoa. Visitation was granted to [redacted] non-custodial, biological father Charles David Gipp and non-custodial, biological grandmother Sandra Black Hoop on April 5, 2019. Gipp and Black Hoop picked up [redacted] after school on the 5th in Ft. Yates. [redacted] was supposed to be returned the evening of April 6 and was not.

I spoke with Chief Sparky Edwards about the situations. I was informed that Black Hoop was arrested on Saturday for drug possession. During the arrest [redacted] and Gipp were not present and their location was unknown. On April 9, 2019 he received a phone call from [redacted] custodial guardian that she had not yet been returned. Chief Edwards stated that he contacted Mandan PD with a possible location of [redacted] and Gipp. They were not located in Mandan.

Chief Edwards did not have any reliable vehicle information for either Gipp or Black Hoop. He knows that Gipp and Black Hoop associate with individuals involved in illegal drug activities and that Gipp is prone to violence. He was concerned for [redacted] safety and wanted to ensure her safe return.

Special Agent Harstad (BCI) and I decided that the request did not meet the criteria for an Amber Alert notification. I assisted Chief Edwards in working with NDSLIC to send out a HotSheet on Gipp and I also assisted him with crafting a social media post which was posted to the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe official Facebook page. I also worked with Chief Edwards how the tribal custody agreement can be enforced outside of the reservation boundaries. Chief Edwards was going to work with the custodial guardian to have the child custody order registered with the state so it could be enforced outside the reservation.

Chief Edwards did try and engage the suspect via Facebook asking that he turn [redacted] over. This exchange did not work.
